

Art Exhibit: David Burbach

The West Linn Public Library will host an exhibit featuring the work of David Burbach during the month of September. The exhibit will run September 5-28 in the library's Community Room which is open to the public when not in use, and always open on Sundays, noon – 5:00 p.m.

Burbach focuses on urban and rural photography and his eclectic style draws inspiration from a wide variety of photographers including Joseph Sudek, Paul Strand, Edward and Brett Weston, Minor White, Phil Harris, and his friend and fellow photographer, Patrick Kolb. Influences are not limited to photographers; artists such as Vermeer and Hopper, musicians such as Yo Yo Ma and Miles Davis, and theologian Thomas Merton are possibly even bigger influences. He has used everything from a 35mm camera to a large format camera. These days he uses a digital camera and produces prints with archival pigment.
